President's Perch

I would like to begin my term as president by thanking Dennis Kirkwood for the wonderful leadership he has provided the club (and me) over the last two years.

I am proud to serve as president of the club that was so integral to my start in birding. Many of you are already familiar with the story of how I became a birder through Spike Updegrave's biology class at C. Milton Wright High School. Spike recognized my enthusiasm and must have been very patient to listen to me tell him every new bird I saw before homeroom each morning. He let me accompany him, Joe Vangrin, and fellow student Joe Chronowski, to Michigan and Minnesota that summer for one of the most memorable trips of my life. If you were at the Summer Social this July, you heard that I eat healthier because of his advice. Indeed, it is not an exaggeration to say few people have had as much impact on my life as Spike Updegrave.

That first year, I learned so much about birding by attending club field trips led by Dave Webb, Les Eastman, Russ Kovach, and others. Dave Larkin and Rick Cheicante took me to Bombay Hook several times before I could drive. I spent a weekend with Jean and Larry Fry at Chincoteague. None of that would have been possible without the bird club and I certainly would not be writing this column without all their help and influence.

Fifteen years later, I am really happy to see some of the familiar faces still attending club meetings and field trips. Much more, I am glad to see new faces and even a few birders younger than I am! I hope the club continues to grow and we maintain the wonderful sense of community at our functions. Please contact me with any suggestions, questions, or concerns you have about the club. I could not do this without all of the amazing members who keep this club running smoothly.

I would like to finish by saying that, in addition to becoming president of the bird club, I am also becoming a father. Kim is due in mid-October and I hope to have our little boy coming to meetings soon after. We will probably wait until spring before his first field trip though. Thank you! ~

Miniature Decoys For Sale

Some years ago, I had subscribed to a program marketed by the Franklin Mint and acquired 36 miniature ducks portraying every species of native North American duck (all to appropriate scale) and carefully hand painted by William J. Koelpin all in mint condition. Each duck is accompanied by a short descriptive folder. I formerly displayed them on a shelf in my library. Original cost was about $400; suggested price $350. June Challenge 2013

The first annual Harford County June Challenge was a success! I had personally thought that 125 species was a reasonable goal for the project and Harford Birders were able to find an incredible 133 species this June!

Some of the highlights from this year:

10 species of waterfowl including Blue-winged Teal, Bufflehead, Ring-necked Duck, Common and Hooded Mergansers, and Ruddy Duck.

Ring-necked Pheasant and Northern Bobwhite – both species have interesting questions of origin, but we are counting them for the Challenge. The pheasant is likely to have wandered south from the Pennsylvania population and who knows how a bobwhite found its way onto an island in the Susquehanna River!

Dave Larkin found a rare summering Sharp-shinned Hawk Broad-winged Hawk was seen in the Broad Creek area and was actually documented nesting in July! See photos here:

<http://ebird.org/ebird/view/checklist?subID=S14746223>

Common Gallinule was present at Swan Harbor for the 3rd year in a row!

“Rare” Ring-billed and Great Black-backed Gulls were present all month at Tydings, in contrast to the last two years.

Barry Marsh found a pair of Common Terns on Gunpowder.

Dave Webb was able to hear Eastern Whip-poor-wills on the Proving Ground.

Late migrant Chestnut-sided and Black-throated Blue Warblers were found by Tim Carney and Matt Addicks, respectively.

Josh Emm was able to find lingering White-throated Sparrow and Pine Siskin.

We only have 5 lists reported this year, but lots of people contributed sightings. I hope next year to have more people submit their personal month totals. And your winner is....

Josh Emm – 118

Matt Hafner – 104

Dave Larkin – 98

Tim Carney – 86

Matt Anthony – 81

Congratulations Josh!

Field Trip Reports

Bombay Hook July 21st.

The hot humid weather that we had experienced of late abated a little for the field trip to Bombay Hook. Three of us made the trip. Our first stops were at Woodland Beach and Taylor's Gut. At Taylors Gut there were small numbers of peeps among which we were pleased to find three Pectoral Sandpipers. Raymond pool at Bombay Hook had large numbers of shorebirds but even with scopes they were too far away for identification. Blue Grosbeak were very plentiful at Bombay, as were calling Clapper Rail, though we were unable to see the rails. The total number of species seen was 64. ~ David Larkin

Harford Bird Club Field Trips

Field trip schedule compiled by Tom Gibson and Lynn Davis

September 2 (Mon.- Labor Day) – Ma and Pa Trail. We return to this newest segment of Harford County's iconic rails-to-trails Ma & Pa conversion project. We'll start at Annie's playground at the west end and stroll east to the Equestrian Center at Tollgate Road. Diverse habitat along the way promises a variety of birds. Meet at Annie's playground on Smith Lane off Connolly Road in Fallston at 7:30 AM. The leader is Susan Hood (410-877-0574; susanhood@comcast.net).

September 7 (Sat.) - Rocks State Park. Take in one of the fine Maryland forest preserves; it flanks Deer Creek not far from its headwaters, offering extensive bird-friendly woodland habitats. Meet leader Dennis Kirkwood ((410-692-5905; newarkfarms@gmail.com) at the park headquarters parking lot on Rocks Chrome Hill Road at 7:00 AM.

September 15 (Sun.) – Perryville Community Park & Elk River Park. These two parks have become attractive sites for interesting and elusive species – especially passerines and waterfowl. Take advantage of these two hot spots and meet leaders Dave Larkin (410-569-8319; larkin3001@comcast.net) and Phil Powers (410-679-4116; birdsindmd@verizon.net) at 7:00 AM at the park & ride at Md Rt 155 and I-95.

Sept. 25 (Wed.) – Eden Mill – Join us for a mid-week walk along scenic Falling Branch Road. Various migrants should be seen in the rural habitats we will pass. Meet with leader Dennis Kirkwood (410-692-5905; newarkfarms@gmail.com) at the Park Pavilion at 7:00 AM.

September 28 (Sat.) – Harford Glen. The Glen offers varied habitat attractive to many avian species, especially at this migration time. Don't miss this prime season and location for some great bird-watching! Join leader, Phil Powers (410-679-4116; birdsindmd@verizon.net) at the lower parking lot at 7:00 AM.

October 5 (Sat.) Swan Harbor Farm Park. This preserved area near the upper bay provides prime habitat for waterfowl, song birds, and marsh and field birds. The field trip begins at 7:30 AM at the parking lot at the end of the driveway. Contact leader Dave Webb (410-939-3537 or porzana@comcast.net) for further information.

We will launch kayaks from Tydings Park to maneuver for better views of waterfowl, shorebirds, and other birds along this shoreline of the upper Bay. Meet leaders Sue Procell and Colleen Webster there at 8:00 AM. Reservations required. Contact Colleen (cwebster@harford.edu or 410-459-4577) for information about kayak rental, reservations, or other details.

October 26 (Sat.) – Turkey Point Owl/Hawk Watch. We have planned a double raptor treat with this trip. Bird bander Ken Heselton will meet the group at 5:00 AM at his motor home that will be parked in the Turkey Point Trail parking lot of Elk Neck State Park. If he has had a successful night netting and banding owls he will be able to show us examples of these always fascinating nocturnal birds. There are few experiences more memorable in birding than seeing an owl in hand. For those for whom the owling is a bit too early, we will regroup at 6:30 AM in the same parking lot and bird our way along the trail until reaching Turkey Point with its spectacular views of the North East River and the Susquehanna Flats to the west, the Elk River to the east and the Chesapeake Bay to the south. Looking up, it is also a wonderful place to see raptors as they work their way south. If you are not familiar with the route, call for directions. Meet leaders Tom Gibson (410-734-4135; gibsonlld@aol.com) and Josh Emm (410-937-6790; apistopanchax@gmail.com) at the Turkey Point Light House Trail parking lot at either 5:00 AM or 6:30 AM.

Harford Youth Birders View Hummer Banding

Harford Youth Birders were amazed at the number of hummers buzzing around feeders as they waited to see experts catch and band these flying jewels. Thank you to Les Eastman, Bruce Peterjohn, and Diane Jones for educating our youth about a process that is not only fascinating, but essential for scientists to study birds' habits. Each participant was able to release a banded bird, and Bruce explained the process as he weighed, measured, and examined each tiny bird.

The next event for youth birders is Sept. 22nd at Harford Glen counting birds for the HBC fall count. Please see the new Harford Youth Birder website for details. <http://harforyouthbirding.org/>.
